

Make these sentences really interesting by adding the words that are spoken.

1. The clown laughed, “ !”
2. The bus driver shouted, “ !”
3. The teacher asked, “ ?”
4. The sad girl whispered, “ ?”
5. The shopkeeper promised, “ ”

Put the speech marks in the correct places in these sentences. Include capital letters and don't forget punctuation at the end of the sentence, inside the speech marks.

6. The receptionist asked, can I help you
7. Sam declared, I never want to go there again
8. Tom moaned, my tooth is really hurting
9. Harry pleaded, can I go to play in the park
10. Make up a sentence of your own using speech marks. Include these words:

help

maths

please

.....

Name:

Make these sentences really interesting by adding the words that are spoken.

1. Mum said, “ ”
2. The butcher asked, “ ?”
3. The swimming instructor yelled, “ !”
4. Dave wondered, “ ?”
5. The naughty boy promised, “ ”

Put the speech marks in the correct places in these sentences. Include capital letters and don't forget punctuation at the end of the sentence, inside the speech marks.

6. Sarah said, I am not feeling very well
7. Mum asked, what is the matter
8. Sarah replied, my tummy is aching
9. Mum replied, you had better not go to the party then
10. Make up a sentence of your own using speech marks. Include these words:

great

football

boasted

.....

Name:

Rewrite the sentences below putting in the correct punctuation. Look for commas, speech marks, capital letters and punctuation at the end of the sentence, inside the speech marks.

1. mum yelled finish your homework right now

.....

2. sam asked have you seen the latest spiderman film

.....

3. sophie said I like to read every day for an hour

.....

4. the bird spotter muttered go away

.....

Now make up your own sentences with speech in, using these starters.

5. The teacher

6. The magician

7. The news reader.....

8. The astronaut

Rewrite the sentences below putting in the correct punctuation. Look for commas, speech marks, capital letters and punctuation at the end of the sentence, inside the speech marks.

1. the baker boasted these are the best cakes you can buy

.....

2. the gardener shouted keep off the grass

.....

3. the lumberjack yelled watch out for the tree falling

.....

4. the shop assistant said the coat fits you perfectly sir

.....

Now make up your own interesting sentences with speech in, using these starters.

5. The witch

6. The nurse

7. The cook.....

8. The gasman

Answers

Page 1

- 1-5 Any suitable spoken words.
6. The receptionist asked, "Can I help you?"
7. Sam declared, "I never want to go there again."
8. Tom moaned, "My tooth is really hurting."
9. Harry pleaded, "Can I go to play in the park?"
(exclamation mark could replace the full stop.)
10. Any suitable sentence:
e.g. Harry said, "Please help me with my maths."

Page 2

- 1-5 Any suitable spoken words.
6. Sarah said, "I am not feeling very well."
7. Mum asked, "What is the matter?"
8. Sarah replied, "My tummy is aching."
9. Mum replied, "You had better not go to the party then."
(exclamation mark could replace the full stop.)
10. Any suitable sentence:
e.g. Jim boasted, "I am a great football player."

Page 3

1. Mum yelled, "Finish your homework right now!"
2. Sam asked, "Have you seen the latest Spiderman film?"
3. Sophie said, "I like to read every day for an hour."
4. The bird spotter muttered, "Go away!"
- 5-8 Any suitable sentences.

Page 4

1. The baker boasted, "These are the best cakes you can buy."
2. The gardener shouted, "Keep off the grass!"
3. The lumberjack yelled, "Watch out for the tree falling!"
4. The shop assistant said, "The coat fits you perfectly, sir."
(exclamation mark could replace the full stop.)
- 5-8 Any suitable sentences.