

Using Did and Done

LO: I can use 'did' and 'done' accurately.

Success criteria:

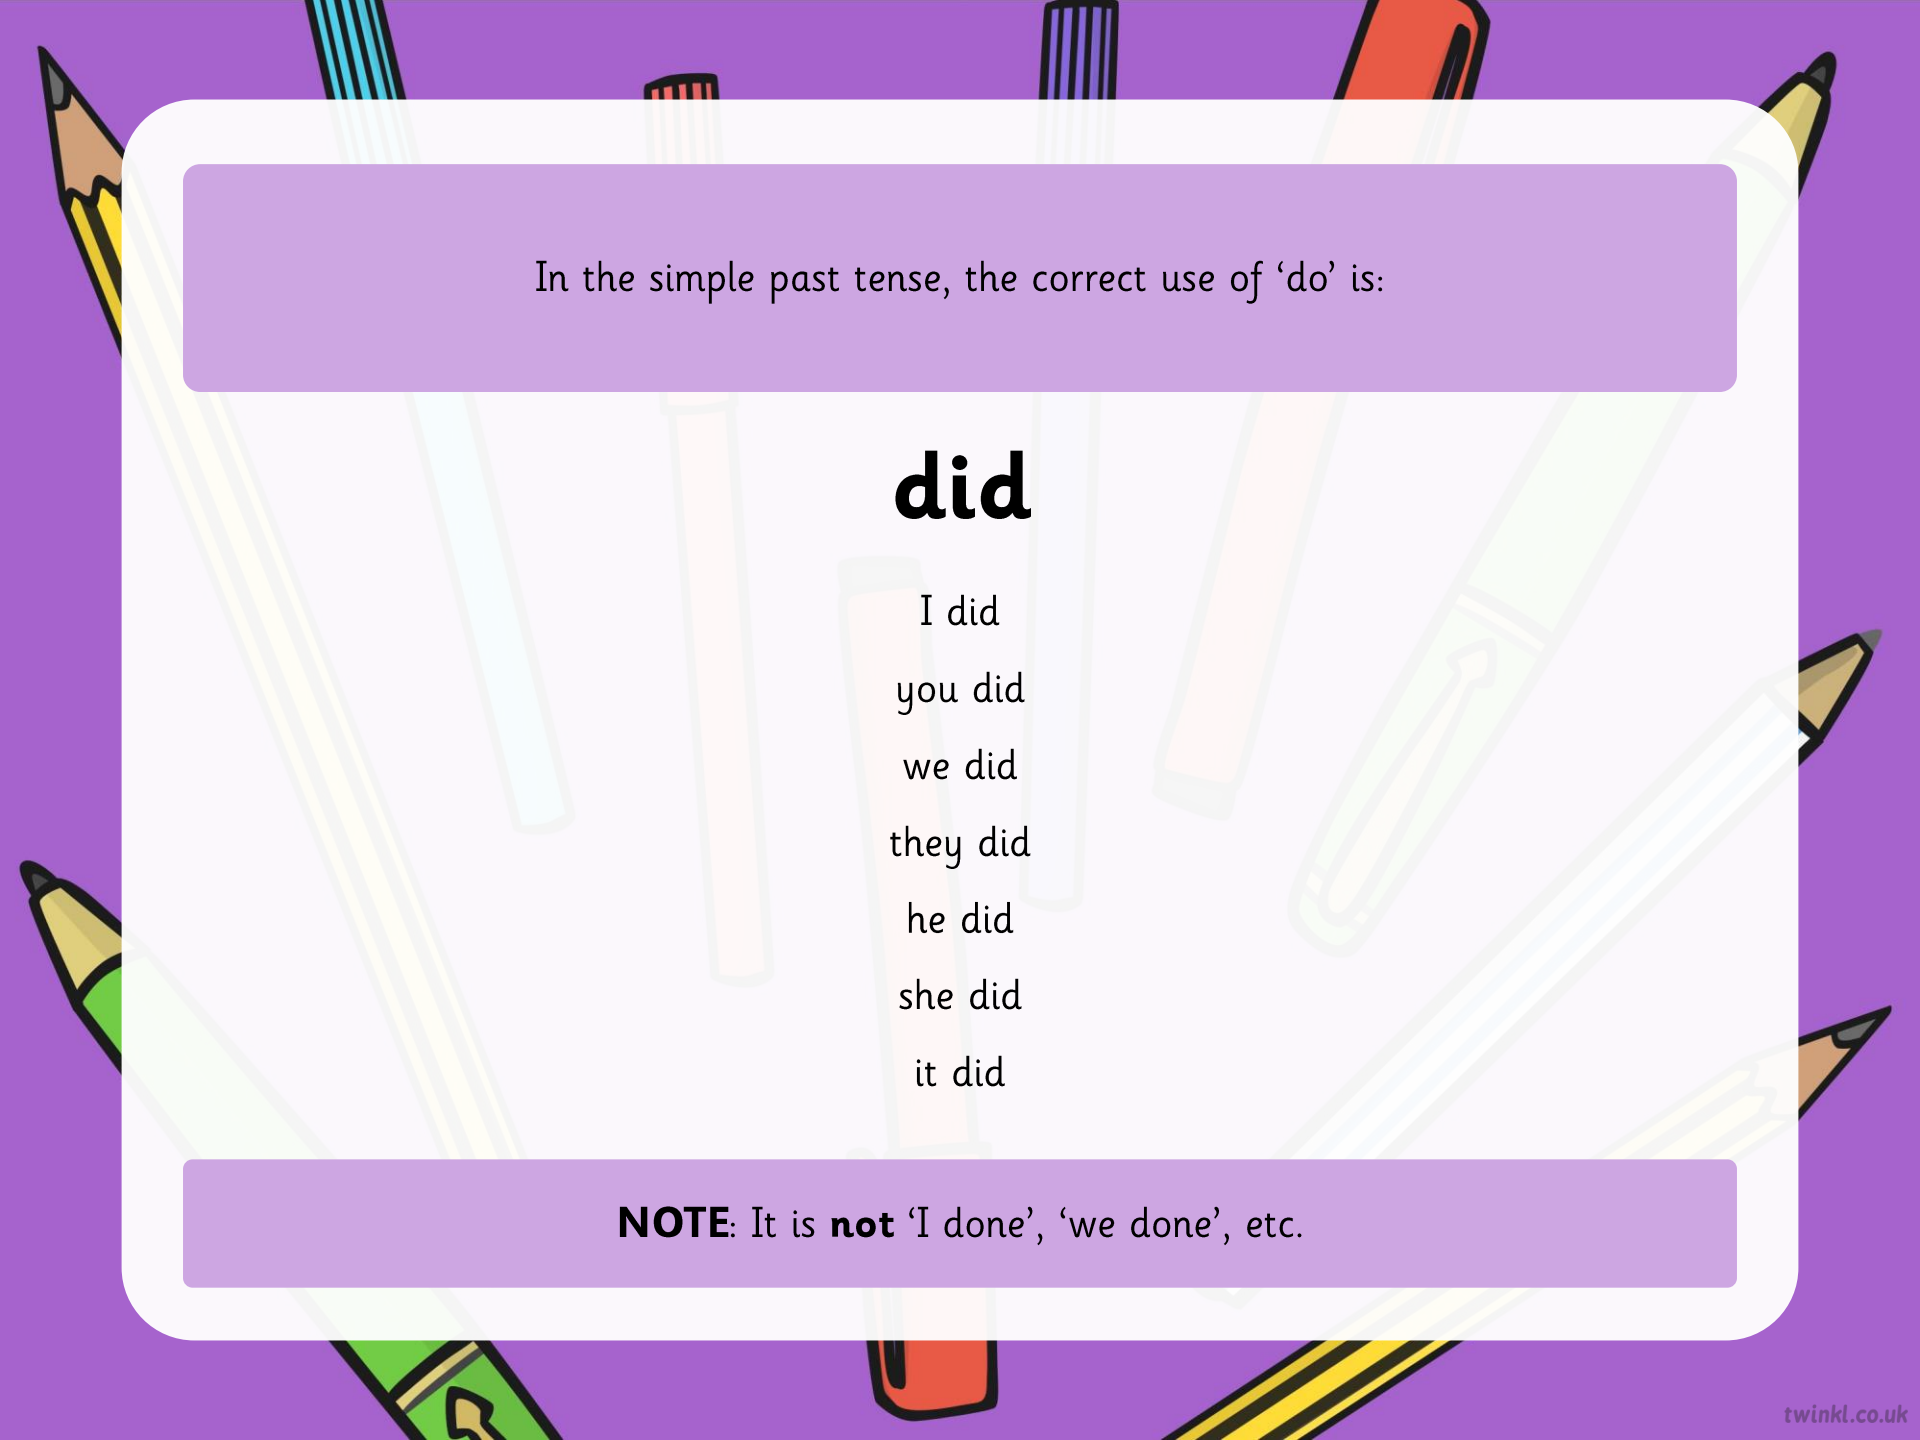

- I know the simple past tense of 'do'.
- I know whether to use 'did' or 'done' in my writing.
- I know whether to use 'did' or 'done' in spoken language.
- I know how to use 'did' to form a question and add emphasis.

'Do' is a common verb in English.

'Did' and 'done' are the past tenses of the verb 'do'.

In the simple past tense, the correct use of 'do' is:

did

I did you did we did they did he did she did it did

NOTE: It is not 'I done', 'we done', etc.

Using the verb 'done' always requires a helping word.

Examples:

have done

I have done
you have done
we have done
they have done

has done

he has done
she has done
it has done

Plenary

Did or Done Quiz

Question 1

Which is the correct use of 'did' / 'done'?

A He done it wrong.

B We did the quiz together.

C We done the race.

D I done my homework.

 = correct

 = incorrect

Question 2

Which is the correct use of 'did' / 'done'?

A I has done it.

B We has done it.

C He have done it.

D You have done it.

 = correct

 = incorrect

Question 3

Which is the correct use of 'doing'?

A We was doing it right.

B She were doing it right.

C He was doing it right.

D I were doing it right.

 = correct

 = incorrect

'Did' or 'done'?

A You _____ very well today.

did

done

B We have _____ it properly this time.

did

done

C She has _____ the washing up.

did

done

D I _____ not enjoy that film.

did

done

twinkl