

Tyrannosaurus

A dinosaur called Tyrannosaurus Rex thought he was rather small. He wanted to be taller because as he watched the Brachiosaurus it made him feel even smaller. What was he to do? His Mum talked to him. He wasn't the tallest dinosaur but he had claws and was big and scary. His mum told him he didn't need to be taller as he did not need to eat leaves from the tall trees on the lawn. He was much happier after that and enjoyed the Autumn sun.
