

How to use:

Simply print the sheets, laminate so they last longer and then cut the hexagons. Students are to then join the hexagons together using number bonds knowledge. The final shape should make a 'flower' shape with a hexagon in the middle and 6 around the outside.

